THE LAST OF THE SEASON.

Nine O'clock German a Brilliant Success.

The throng of young people that gathered at the armory last night was one of the largest and most brilliant in the history of Ocala society. They were gathered there to participate in the Easter German given by the Nine O'clock German Club.

The armory was very tastefully and artistically decorated in palms, vines and evergreens, and formed a very pretty background for the handsome men and beautifully gowned women assembled there.

The music consisted of Prof. Pike, piano; Mr. VanDusen, trombone; Mr. Ray Alworth, cornet, and Mr. Newell, of Orlando, violinist.

At nine o'clock the grand march, led by Mr. E. T. Helvenston and Miss Louella Gary, was begun, after which the German, led by Messrs. Helvenston, E. L. McIntosh and F. L. Watson was danced. The figures were all pretty and well executed.

Misses Eloise Miller and Louis Harris gracefully gave out the figures.

Miss Bessie Porter and Allie Van Juhan presided over the punch bowl.

There were a large number of interested spectators present.

Quite a number of visiting young ladies added interest to the occasion.

The following couples participated in the German:

Mr. Helvenston and Miss Gary.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McIntosh.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Woodrow.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Birdsey, of Forsyth, Ga.

Mr. S. E. Hiller and Miss Bessie Deunham, of Savannah, Ga.

Dr. W. H. Powers and Miss Mary Ross, of Jackson, Tenn.

Mr. C. L. Sistrunk and Miss Rose Fox, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. H. G. Eggleston and Miss Alice Reedy.

Mr. C. V. Miller and Miss Sue Barco.

Mr. J. H. Mathews and Miss Lena Bullock.

Mr. J. H. Taylor and Miss Marie Bullock.

Mr. O. B. Howse and Miss Johnnie Liddon.

Mr. G. H. Ford and Miss Esther Weathers.

Mr. Lee Miller and Miss Iva Standley.

Mr. R. T. Birdsey and Miss Emily Ford.

Dr. Dr. T. K. Slaughter and Miss Mona Miller.

Mr. E. L. Scott and Miss Mary Beardon.

Mr. S. Jewett and Miss Sara Harris.

Mr. C. H. Lloyd and Miss Violet Harris.

This last German of the season will certainly be remembered with a great deal of pleasure by those who participated in it.

Ocala Rifles Off for Charleston.

Monday afternoon the Ocala Rifles left for Charleston to spend a week at the exposition. They went in a private car, which had been quite gaily decorated with flags, etc.

In their new uniforms, with their blankets strapped around them, they presented a very creditable appearance.

The following is a complete list of those who went: Messrs. Nash, Graham, Bell, Dunn, Reardon, Ballard, Dorsey, Martinot, Pinder, Dodson, Leavengood, Dosh, Dell Moody, C. C. Priest, Jr., Ingram, Lee Miller, Pittman, Brigrance, F. Carlton, Sam Proctor, Hayes, Thagard, Spencer, Pillaus, Duffy, Lucius, Stroman, S. M. Mathews, Henry Sistrunk, Hugh Haley, Cleveland, Karl and Fred Weihe and Leon Hanlon.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

County Commissioners in Session.

The board of county commissioners met in regular session yesterday with all members present except Commissioner Wartmann, who came in on the afternoon train.

Oliver Fort was appointed inspector of marks and brands at Moss Bluff, and S. L. Redding at Shady Grove. LaGriggs was appointed inspector of cattle driven or shipped from District No. 4, being that part of the county east of the Ocklawaha river.

Quite a number of persons from different sections of the county applied for rebates or reduction of taxes. Tax Assessor Ayer was kept busy adjusting these claims, granting some, refusing others. His reasons and explanations were quite satisfactory to the board.

A petition for a public road from Orange Springs to Orange Creek landing was laid over until next meeting.

Squire Jackson, of Moss Bluff, was authorized to buy two pairs of handcuffs.

Geo. S. Proctor reported that the flat for Stokes ferry was completed and ready to be delivered.

Commissioners Long and Lucius were appointed a committee to inspect the flat and if found satisfactory, to draw a warrant for $75 to pay for same.

The matter of the ferriage of one Mr. Brooks, a former citizen of Marion county, but now living in Citrus county, was again brought up for discussion. It was agreed that upon the payment of $2, he and his family should be entitled to cross free for one year. It was also decided that people going to church or Sunday school should have free ferriage.

Petition for a public road from Irvine to Fairfeld was brought up, and it developed opposition. Mr. D. H. Irvine appeared with a counter petition proposing a new route. The whole matter was laid over until next meeting.

One of T. C. Hall's turpentine men having been sentenced to three months in jail for pistol toting, the board agreed to hire him to Mr. Hall at $20 per month.

E. C. Smith was awarded the contract to bury paupers at $3 each.

The proposition to establish a free ferry at Orange Creek proved to be a knotty problem and has not yet been decided.

The board held an executive session last night and named the Ocala Star in which to print the delinquent tax list this year.

The board proposed that if Citrus county would pay one half the cost of flat at Stokes' Ferry and half the salary of the ferryman, that the ferry be made free to citizens of both counties.

At the Churches Sunday.

The regular morning and evening services were held in all the churches Sunday, except the Episcopal church.

At the Methodist church Rev. Ira S. Patterson, presiding elder of the Gainesville district, preached two very interesting sermons.

At the Presbyterian church Rev. R. H. Morris preached as usual. There was no choir singing but very beautiful music was rendered by Mrs. R. H. Morris at the organ, Miss Mary Drake, of Auburn, Ala., on the violin, and Mr. Albert E. Gerig, cornet.

At the Baptist church the pastor, Rev. L. B. Warren, preached in the morning and evening and the choir sang some very pretty anthems. Three new members were added to this church Sunday, viz: Mrs. Will Goin, Mr. R. M. Grist and Mr. Baxter Carr.

At the Christian church Rev. C. K. Marshall preached two splendid sermons to good congregations.

At the Catholic church the services Sunday morning were conducted by the priest, Father Bottolacio.

Miss Georgie Smith, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. T. H. Wallis, sang very beautifully "Ave Maria."

Judge Bullock Was There.

Not since he "dressed down" the gang of narrow-minded fanatics in this county has Judge Bullock won the admiration of the people of the Fifth Judicial Circuit to such an extent as he did the other day when in Sumterville he saved the life of a condemned murderer from a mob of angry citizens and upheld to the last the majesty of the law.

From the reports sent out from Sumterville (and they are corroborated by those who were there at the time) the people of that place had made up their minds to wreak vengeance upon the negro who had killed one of the best citizens of Sumter county.

But Judge Bullock was there, and he was there insisting upon the majesty of the law being upheld. He did not stop with a plea to the angry mob. He appreciated the fact that there was something of more weight than mere talk needed and he called upon the sheriff to do his duty to the utmost, even though it endangered the lives of others to protect his prisoner. Neither did he stop there. He saw that the prisoner was furnished with a bodyguard of several determined men and he told them what was expected of them before they were placed in charge of the prisoner.

Even all these precautions did not satisfy the judge. He saw that there were a great many determined men in the little village who were there to kill the prisoner and he realized that extreme measures would be necessary. Appreciating the fact that the way to the county jail from the court house would be the dangerous time for the negro murderer, he handcuffed himself to the prisoner to make sure that he would be handled with safety. It might not have been a comely sight for some of the citizens to witness, and to a great many it might have appeared rather awkward to see a judge of the circuit court handcuffed to a common negro murderer, but this made no difference to Judge Bullock. He was bent on saving a lynching, and it was due to his calmness, firmness and presence of mind that the negro was not lynched on the streets of Sumterville in broad open day.

Many people suffer untold tortures from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment will cure them. It has met with absolute success. Price, 50 cents in bottles, tubes 75 cents. Anti-Monopoly Drug Store.

That Town "Hoodo."

The Ocala Banner is seriously discussing the problem: "Is a public square a hoodo to a town?" One of the many "esteemed citizens" insists that no town constructed on the hovering around-the-square style of beauty was ever known to make any progress. In a sense, this is correct; the "hovering" tendency was never known to accomplish much. Still, it is rather a low down trick to blame a quiet, modest little town park with being the sole cause of a hoodo. Tropical Sun.

Ocala Honored.

Dr. H. C. Groves, of this city, received a telegram calling him to Gainesville earlier than he expected to go. Owing to the absence of Dr. Forbes, the president of the Sunday School Association, Dr. Groves will preside at the deliberations of the convention, as he is the senior vice-president. The other delegates from the various churches left yesterday afternoon.

A Voice For the Dispensary.

A man who favors the dispensary law has turned up—Mr. W. S. Broome, of Gainesville. He knows why he favors it, too, and states his reasons with logic and force. How would it do, instead of yelling at this movement, to think it over a little?—St. Petersburg Times.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial. It causes buncches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." Mrs. K. T. Snyder, Troy, Ohio.
